SPARTAN Southern Classic

Dear Participants,

We are excited to welcome you to our 21st Annual Spartan Southern Classic Marching Band Competition. Much planning and anticipation has gone into our event this year to make this a successful competition for everyone involved. Our competition has grown throughout the years and we are honored that you have chosen to be our guests for a special anniversary year.

Congratulations on your dedication and commitment in preparation for your show this season. There is great work being done in band rooms across the region, and this is evident by your participation here today. Your directors, your parents, your teachers, and your friends all respect your commitment to music and know the sacrifices that you have made to come this far.

We trust that your visit to Spartan Country will prove to be both rewarding and educational as you begin to fine-tune your show. If you need assistance in any way today, simply ask a South Caldwell Band Booster for help; we will do our best to meet your needs. Again, thank you for your participation today, and best wishes throughout the 2023 marching season.

Sincerely,
Jason Childers
Director of Bands-SCHS

SPARTAN Southern Classic ADJUDICATION

Chris Mayhew

Chris Mayhew is the Percussion Professor at Lenoir-Rhyne University where he runs the percussion studio, percussion ensemble, and marching percussion groups. Chris is also the music teacher at Happy Valley Elementary School where he teaches students from kindergarten through eighth grade. He is a recent graduate with a Masters of Music degree in Percussion Performance at the Hayes School of Music at Appalachian State University. This is his eighth year as the Director of Marching Percussion at Lenoir-Rhyne University and his sixth year as a public school teacher formerly at Lincolnton Middle School where he spent five years as the Band Director. Chris also currently serves as a delegate on the Percussive Arts Society's University Student Committee and is a Liaison for the Drum Set Committee.

Dr. Michael E. Matheny

Michael Matheny began as assistant band director of East Rutherford High School in 1973 while finishing his undergrad degree at Gardner Webb College. In 1974, Matheny served as director of the Burns High School Band, Lawndale North Carolina. While under his direction, the Burns band won numerous awards in both marching and concert competition. The band was invited by United States President Gerald Ford to perform for his visit to Charlotte North Carolina. Named band director of Wilkes Central High School, Wilkesboro, NC. in the Fall of 1977 Matheny served through 1986 until he entered educational administration as a school principal. While at Wilkes Central as band director, Matheny's bands performed in national competition with Marching Bands of America Contests and claimed third place in the prestigious Festival of States Marching Band Contest, St. Petersburg Florida in 1979 and once again in 1985. The Wilkes Central High School Marching Band represented North Carolina in the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade in New York City (Nov. 1982). Matheny has arranged music and marching field drill for various University, College and High School bands across America. He has served as clinician, guest conductor, an adjudicator for regional and National marching and concert band contests for the past 38 years. In 2002, Dr. Matheny was named the National Association of Secondary Schools Administrators "North Carolina Middle School Principal of the Year" at the call of the United States Department of Education in Washington, DC. Matheny retired from service as an administrator and principal in the North Carolina Public School System in 2004.

SPARTAN Southern Classic ADJUDICATION

Donald Peach

Mr. Donald Peach, former Director of Bands and Music Coordinator at Hickory High School, recently served for the second time as the Interim Associate Director of bands at Appalachian State University, where he was Director of the Marching Mountaineers and Symphony Band. He is a graduate of Mars Hill College with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music Education. Mr. Peach was the Lincolnton High School Band Director from 1973 to 1994. During that time, his bands received numerous Superior and Excellent ratings and attended the 1985 Inaugural Parade in Washington, D.C. After formally retiring from public school teaching, he was an Educational Representative for Music & Arts Centers for six years. He rehearsed the Pride of the Mountains Marching Band at Western Carolina University during their camps for 14 years. Mr. Peach carries a flame of energy, fun, and dedication in all his roles. He has been past president of the Northwestern District Band Directors Association. He is a Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia member, the American School Band Director Association, and the North Carolina Music Educators Association. He has served as an adjudicator and presented various band clinics and workshops nationwide. Mr. Peach also served as the Curriculum Section Chair on the state task force that revised the music curriculum in North Carolina. In addition, he was the Assistant Director of the Spirit of America National Honors Band and Freedom Singers, which performed throughout Europe in the summer of 2001. He also enjoyed directing the orchestra for the Lincoln County Theatre Guild during their summer productions of Hello Dolly, The Sound of Music, Fiddler on the Roof, Oklahoma, and Music Man from 1981-1986. Mr. Peach is a member of The North Carolina Bandmasters Hall of Fame. Don informally mentors young band directors and is formally an Academic Music Supervisor for student teachers and practicum interns at Appalachian State University's Hayes School of Music.

He resides in Lincolnton with his wife, Anita, and remains active in his community. He has two children, Drew (a USMC veteran) and Anna, and a grandson, Braylon.

Tuck Tucker

Tuck Tucker is currently the Colorguard Director for Ronald W. Reagan High School in Pfafftown NC. He has been with this program successfully for many years in the past with both Winterguard and Fall guard programs. His passion for the activity began with his time with Drum Corps in his earlier years.

He started teaching Colorguard camps throughout Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia. Tuck has consulted and directed many colorguard programs with numerous schools across North Carolina, Virginia, and Georgia. He consults with both guard staff and band directors to help achieve their goal for an overall visual package. Tuck is from Winston Salem, NC and works full time for Pepsico.

SPARTAN Southern Classic ADJUDICATION

Neil Underwood

Mr. Underwood served as the Associate and Interim Director of Bands/Director of Athletic Bands at Lenoir-Rhyne University in Hickory, NC from 2015-2024. Prior to his appointment at Lenoir-Rhyne he served as Director of Bands at North Lincoln High School in Lincolnton, NC (2003-2015) and at East Lincoln High School in Denver, NC (1983-2003). During his tenure, his bands twice performed in Carnegie Hall, once at the Lincoln Center, twice at North Carolina Music Educator's Conference, and for the 60 th anniversary of the ending of WWII in Washington DC.

His bands marched in the National Memorial Day Parade, the Hollywood Christmas Parade, and won the Gator Bowl National Band Championship. His bands have been finalists at regional Bands of America Championships and have attended Grand Nationals. His concert and marching bands won numerous state and regional competitions in concert band, marching band, jazz band, winterguard and indoor percussion.

Serving as President of the North Carolina Bandmaster's Association 2002-04, Mr. Underwood previously served as President of the South-Central District, and was honored with the Award of Excellence in 2003. He was Teacher of the Year for Lincoln County Schools in 2002 and received the 2008 NC Citizenship Teacher of the Year. In 2013 Mr. Underwood was recognized as one of SBO (School Band and Orchestra) Magazine's 50 Directors Who Make a Difference. In 2021, Mr. Underwood was inducted into the North Carolina Bandmaster's Hall of Fame. He is a member of ASBDA, NafME, NCBA, and CBDNA.

Dr. Tim Brewer

Dr. Tim Brewer lives in Charlotte, NC. He holds a Bachelor's in Music Education from Berry College and a Master's in Music Education from Winthrop University, and an earned Doctorate in Counseling. He did additional graduate study at VanderCook College of Music. Dr. Brewer spent twenty years in education teaching middle school, high school, and adjunctly at UNC- Charlotte as the athletic band director. His bands received many Superior ratings and awards in concert and marching contests. In 1995, he was elected to the prestigious American School Band Directors Association. In addition to teaching, he specialized in writing and designing curriculum for instrumental music education. After his tenure as a teacher, he spent eighteen years as a representative for local, regional, and national music companies. Later in his career, he had a desire to become a counselor and went back and completed a Doctorate to achieve that goal. In 2017, he and his wife founded Judah Care Center, a counseling practice in Fort Mill, SC. Dr. Brewer is active as a public speaker for counseling and marriage conferences. He remains active and is sought after as an adjudicator, clinician, and judge for his first love, instrumental music.
